30TH Sunday in Ordinary Time

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introduction

Throughout Judeo-Christian history, people have explored how to live as God's people. Reflection on our bottom line as committed Christians could not be more relevant in our current political and economic climate. Today's readings reiterate that faithful living means - at rock bottom- loving and caring for one another, especially the most vulnerable. The instructions could not be simpler. That we still need to hear this reminds us that simple does not mean easy.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

In today's gospel the Pharisee was talking about commandments (something we are forced to obey by external pressure) and Jesus was talking about love (an internal exhortation to give our hearts, soul and mind to another). One demands allegiance, the other requires personal commitment. In our families we daily lay down our lives for each other not because we "gotta" but because love compels us.

BAPTISM: Usually scheduled for Sunday during or after Mass. Parents should first contact the pastor for an appointment and also plan on attending one session of our Baptismal Preparation Program, which explains the significance of the sacrament and each part of the Baptismal rite. Many parents may find it more convenient to attend this session during pregnancy rather than after the birth of their child. We rejoice with joy in your happiness!

MARRIAGE: Congratulations! We want to do everything we can to make this day special for you. Couples should be members of the parish and make an appointment with the pastor at least six months before the desired date of the wedding. Participation in some form of Pre -Cana conference is necessary.

HOSPITAL: Please notify us if you or a member of your family enters the hospital so that they will be able to receive the healing Sacraments of Anointing of the Sick and the Eucharist.

HOMEBOUND: There may be times when you may not be able to get to Mass because of illness or the weather. If this is the case, please let us know so that we will be able to bring you Communion. Also, if you know of anyone who is permanently homebound, please let us know so that we will be able to schedule frequent Communion visitations.

NEW PARISHIONERS: Welcome to our community!
Please register at the rectory as soon as possible

Attention : It has been over 3 years since we had a training class on how to use our Automatic External Defibrillator . If you are one of our trained people please, let the rectory know if you need a recertification training. If you are interested in being one of our trained specialist please contact the Rectory at 315-475-2185.

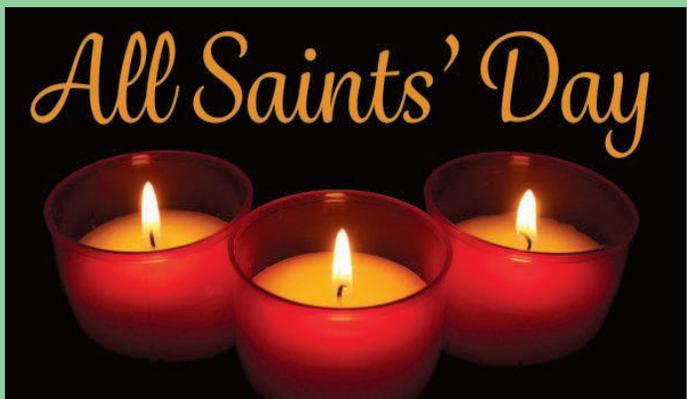

General House Keeping :
Please remember to take a moment and pick up your space in the pew after mass.

Please say a decade of the rosary each day for world peace

Have a great weekend-stay safe and we will see you next weekend

GO YANKEES !

All Saints Prayer

God of all, On this day we recall those who have gone before us , leaving the world and joining you forever. Help us to remember that we are never alone . For even when we feel lost in our walk with you, We have a cloud of believers surrounding us, cheering us on . May your saints guide us with their words, inspire us with their example, and bring us to holiness with their prayers. Most of all, give us the desire to be saints ourselves, to know, love and serve you in this life, and enjoy you forever in the next , fulfilling the purpose for which you created us.

Amen
