31TH Sunday in Ordinary Time

---

31th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Do as I say not as I do” How many of us have been tempted to say this to our children? In today’s gospel we hear a resounding reply from Jesus, “Practice what you preach.” Those who know us best, our family and especially our children, can identify the inconsistencies between what we want to teach and the examples that we give. The challenge for all of us, especially those of us who are parents, is to model consistency the faith and Christian way of life we wish to teach our children.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

In today’s gospel Jesus describes the vocation of parents: “The greatest among you will be your servant.” Children take our blood, genes, strength, name, patience and resources. A parent servitude begins at the moment of conception. The Lord is present in each of our acts of priceless service.

BAPTISM: Usually scheduled for Sunday during or after Mass. Parents should first contact the pastor for an appointment and also plan on attending one session of our Baptismal Preparation Program, which explains the significance of the sacrament and each part of the Baptismal rite. Many parents may find it more convenient to attend this session during pregnancy rather than after the birth of their child. We rejoice with joy in your happiness!

MARRIAGE: Congratulations! We want to do everything we can to make this day special for you. Couples should be members of the parish and make an appointment with the pastor at least six months before the desired date of the wedding. Participation in some form of Pre -Cana conference is necessary.

HOSPITAL: Please notify us if you or a member of your family enters the hospital so that they will be able to receive the healing Sacraments of Anointing of the Sick and the Eucharist.

HOMEBOUND: There may be times when you may not be able to get to Mass because of illness or the weather. If this is the case, please let us know so that we will be able to bring you Communion. Also, if you know of anyone who is permanently homebound, please let us know so that we will be able to schedule frequent Communion visitations.

NEW PARISHIONERS: Welcome to our community!
Please register at the rectory as soon as possible

Humility is more than charity toward others or thinking less of ourselves. It means being open to learn from others, and admitting that we may not know everything.

General House Keeping :
Please remember to take a moment and pick up your space in the pew after mass.

Please say a decade of the rosary each day for world peace

Have a great weekend-stay safe and we will see you next weekend

GO SU!

“Whoever exalts himself
shall be humbled;
and whoever humbles
himself shall be exalted.”

Matt 23:12

A Prayer for Humility

*O Father, gives us humility which recognizes it's ignorance, Admits its mistakes,
recognizes its need,
welcomes advise,
Accepts rebuke.
Help us always to praise
rather than to criticize,
To sympathize rather than to discourage,
to build rather than to destroy,
And to think of people at their best rather than at their worst.
This we ask for our name sake.*

Amen
