Dear St. Charles-St. Ann Parishioners,

A huge THANK YOU to all who so generously dropped off or mailed your weekly envelopes. It is very clear that our Parish is in the forefront of your minds and hearts. Until we can gather again together to celebrate our beautiful liturgies, your willingness to keep us together financially is very much appreciated.

Please continue to support our parish if possible. If you are interested in on-line giving there is a form on our website, or call the office and we will get one right out to you.

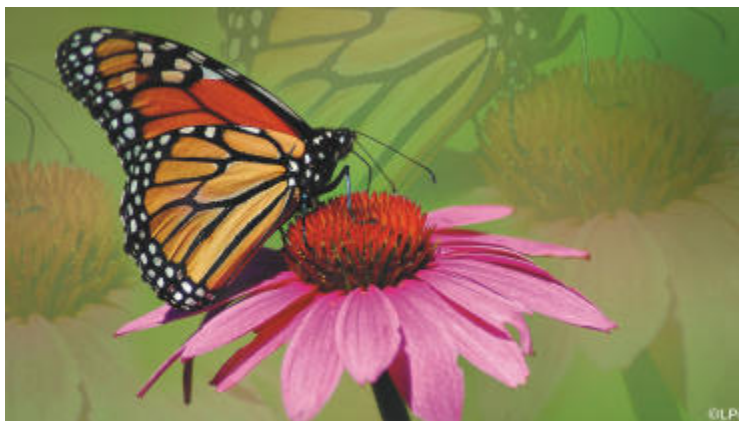

He is Risen Indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter!!! I know it is not the Easter we are used to celebrating, but Jesus still is Risen!!! There are signs of new life all around us as spring shows forth in splendor of buds, flowers and sunshine! We are that much more aware of how precious life is and even though we cannot be together to celebrate Easter, Easter comes in the amazing ways in which we have and continued to care for, nourish and love each other. I have told and continue to tell friends and family that we celebrate Easter EVERY Sunday we gather together for Mass. And so when we finally come together again, we WILL celebrate Easter, we will celebrate each other, and we will celebrate and live our faith in the one who is always with us, the one who is ALWAYS risen, Jesus Christ!!!

Please be safe, can't wait to see you again, and Happy Easter to all of our families and friends .

Father Kevin

Lawrence "Rocky" Kelly

May his soul and all the souls of the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

TODAY
IS THE DAY OF
ALLELUIA

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When we awoke this morning, we found ourselves blessed with another day. It is Easter Sunday. As that thought crossed our minds, did we find ourselves saying "so what" or "alleluia"? For many, today is truly a day of alleluia. For others, it is just another day of "so what." Faith makes a huge difference. It not only makes a difference in how we understand today and the significance of what we celebrate, it also makes a huge difference in terms of how we understand ourselves.

Succeed, live well, be productive, find your niche, follow your dreams, make money, protect your social status, be politically correct, and keep your preferences to yourself are pretty good examples of the messages our secular life wants us to hear. In and of themselves, they don't sound all that harmful. But when really examined, they are. The life of resurrection embodied in the Gospel tells us a much different story.

Life keeps us busy. We are always connected, distracted, occupied, and working. For many of us, an agenda awaits us before we even start our day, and unfinished stuff is brought with us when we retire at night. Make the best of life and "find your own road to happiness are messages we all too easily believe. The "so what" response to the new life of resurrection is often the result of believing that life is only what I make it. What God has to say isn't important to me securing my next raise.

Sadly, we live as if the grave is the end. While we may give the wonder of heaven a blink now and then, its glory really doesn't impress us or matter all that much. It's all about the here and now and what I need to do today to get where I want to be tomorrow. We tend to put off considering the one significant "tomorrow" that will come the millisecond after we take our last breath. When that happens, will we want to be thinking "so what?" or "alleluia"?

There is only one Jesus, one mission, and one resurrection. There is also only one of us. Have you ever pondered what one solitary, humble human life can do? Faith, not our world, tells us how special we are. We are not robots. We are not replaceable. We have one shot. There are no do-overs. Love is at our core and unites us together as one with the God of love who so desperately wants us to be with Him forever. This may not match our secular agenda, but it ought to make our true inner agenda leap for joy. There doesn't need to be an end. I can live forever. Alleluia!

He is Risen Indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!

From the desk of Deacon Tony,

Happy Easter to each and everyone of you! I hope you and your families are healthy and safe.

It seems like an eternity since our paths have crossed, but know you and your families have been and will continue to be in my prayers everyday.

Often, during prayer, I try to visualize where many of you sit in church so I can "See" you as I remember you in prayer.

Hopefully, this will all be over soon and we will be able to see each other in person.

On this day of "new life" may the Risen Lord give you peace, and all that is good.

Deacon Tony

Prayer Requests Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group and the Our God Reigns Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made know to God."

Philippians 4:6
