Blessing of Mothers

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love--mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life--that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

*God our heavenly Father,
you give to each the ability to share your generative love.
Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.
Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.
May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.
We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother.
Amen.*

Inspiration for the week

What do you imagine the resurrected life of heaven to be like? When we try to get our minds around such an enormous concept, we can easily find ourselves at a loss. For some folks, the enormity of the question actually causes them to ignore the reality of heaven or even conclude that it does not exist. Jesus knew that the magnitude and grandeur of eternal life are really too much for us to grasp. He kept it simple and described it in terms of relationship. The disciples treasured their relationship with Jesus, and he assured them, "Where I am you also may be." Ultimately, that was enough for them to know. They would be with him. Strengthen your relationship with God as He is the way, the truth, and the life. Is the assurance that you will be with Him enough for you as well?

"My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God"

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

BLESSINGS IN A BACKPACK

Hello,

My name is Allison Zales and I am a Social Worker at McKinley-Brighton Elementary School in the Syracuse City School District.

Throughout the year, we have partnered with Marie Cullen to provide Blessings in a Backpack to a number of families in need at our school. The amount of support we have received from your parish has been incredible.

I wanted to reach out to you today with an update. While our school building closed on March 17, the outpour of your blessings did NOT.

With Marie's help and the extreme generosity and kindness of your parishioners, food is still being delivered to the homes of our students each and every week. Not just food— hygiene items, cleaning supplies, warm blankets, school supplies, craft items, Easter baskets, activity books— even play-doh!

I wish I could put into words what this has meant to our school community, but it's indescribable. I hope the photos attached can fill in where I am at a loss.

Thank you for all of the nourishment, comfort and hope you have provided to the most vulnerable students of McKinley Brighton. The delivery may have been snacks and toilet paper, but the message is always: You Matter. And for that we can't thank you enough.

Our sincere gratitude,

Allison Zales, Suzie Creekmore, Andy Pagan
