8th Grade and Confirmation Faith Formation for 2020-2021

Praying that all our families are well, healthy and rested after our Covid summer.

Here we are 6 months after Covid has hit and we are getting ready to enter into a new approach to Faith Formation. Just as schools are adapting to social distancing, we at St. Charles-St. Ann's and St. Patrick's & St. Brigid's are also working on ways to keep all students safe in regards to Faith Formation instruction.

For the past 3 years, we have used an amazing video based program for Confirmation called Chosen. It is published by Ascension Press and they have set up an online curriculum and have a workbook for Chosen. They also have a Middle School curriculum as well for 8th grade

We will be sending out a new registration and when we receive all forms back, we will contact Ascension Press with the names and emails of those participating. They will send you a link to officially enroll and we will have workbooks for you to pick up. All of this will hopefully start in October. During the year, we will also be scheduling speaker sessions that can be streamed online and watched at your convenience.

If you have a son or daughter that has not been enrolled here at our parishes and would like to register for Confirmation or 8th grade, please email Terri Condon at condon.tmc@gmail.com

Praying for you and your families. Together, with God's graces, we will get through all of this.

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" Phil 4:13

Prayer Requests Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group and the Our God Reigns Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What right do we have to limit the amount and degree of forgiveness we show to others when we are so desperately in need of it ourselves? In not wanting someone who hurt us to downplay or forget the gravity of their wrong, we cling to anger, resentment, and wrath as a way of maintaining control. It is a way to acknowledge and express our deep hurt. We fail to realize that in doing so we hold ourselves hostage to these destructive feelings and actually become mired in the bondage of sin. All we gain is further alienation from ourselves, others, and especially God. We are no longer free but tethered to all of this unresolved negativity. Don't we really want to let it go? The fact is that we need to.

A good self-reflective posture will quickly show us that when the shoe is on the other foot and we are the ones in need of forgiveness, we desire it above anything else. This is especially true with our relationship with God. It is hypocritical to want one thing for ourselves and something else for another. Yet, many act in precisely this way.

Perhaps we think that in offering forgiveness, even for the most grievous of wrongs, somehow excuses the person of their wrong and makes it almost acceptable. This is what makes revenge, retaliation, and punishment so attractive. We see forgiveness as being an eraser that easily wipes away the offense without consequence. Or, we may believe that in offering forgiveness we must somehow forget the wrong and open myself as a victim of even greater possible hurts in the future. In fact, forgiving my sister or brother of their wrongful actions or attitudes involves none of this. It does not erase anything or position me vulnerably as a doormat to be walked on.

Forgiveness is an act of freedom that restores honest dialogue, shares true, and heartfelt feelings and acknowledges the consequences of an action. It admits that the wrong has caused a hurt that must be healed and squarely positions responsibility on the offender. The act of forgiveness recognizes our sinfulness and brokenness. It also admits that the most saintly among us is capable of doing very grave and deep harm to another person. It sees that we all can be victims of our passions and works in progress that deserve unlimited chances to get it right. With forgiveness, release myself from the bonds of negativity and pursue a path of restoration, wholeness, and healing. I do not forget the wrong nor do I dismiss it. Sometimes, we have to stay far away from the one who hurt us. But we can still heal internally and be free.

For the one who wants to be forgiven and the one who needs offer forgiveness, the journey can be an adventure in learning what brought us to this place and what is needed to move forward. This is exactly how God treats us. Why would we not want to do the same for others?

Faith Formation grades 1-7

Registration forms have been emailed to all students that were enrolled in the program last year. There will NOT be a fee for the virtual program this year. Our curriculum will be family based catechesis, twice a month on the St. Patrick and St. Brigid Facebook page. We will have guest speakers on topics of interest about our wonderful faith. The second grade sacramental program will have a $25.00 fee to cover the cost of workbooks. There will be once a month in classroom instruction along with once a month virtual class.

Please fill out the registration form and send it back to us asap so we can plan on numbers and keep our records up to date. If you have any questions regarding this year, please contact the parish office or email at stcharles.stanns@gmail.com or stpats@stpatricks.syr.org

If you did not have a child registered last year and would like to, please contact the parish office.

We will get through this!!! If there are any topics you would like to have covered in our sessions, please let us know!

May their souls and all the souls of the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Respect Life

A year after New Jersey's Medical Aid in Dying for the Terminally Ill Act took effect, Metuchen Bishop James F. Checchio reminded Catholics in the diocese that it is their shared responsibility to respect and defend all human life. During the first five months after the law passed on August 1, 2019, 12 New Jersey residents ended their lives under the provisions of the law, according to Catholic News Service. The law allows those with a terminal diagnosis and a life expectancy of six months or less to seek permission from two doctors to end their lives with a lethal prescription. In light of the effort to save lives amid the coronavirus pandemic, Bishop Checchio noted the inconsistency with this law. "Young or old, healthy or sick, all human life is precious," he said. Amen.

The Church of St. Michael and St. Peter on Onondaga Hill is hosting a Trunk Sale on Saturday, September 26th from 10am –2pm. It's a garage sale from your car in our parking lot! Come and shop! Vendors pay only $35. to reserve a spot.

Call 315-673-1429 for more information.

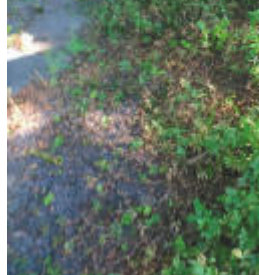

Thank you Father Kevin for bringing in the professionals to finish up the overwhelming project that is the prayer garden.

Thank you to Sister Eileen for orchestrating and all the wonderful volunteers that began the process! It looks beautiful.
