Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God."

Syracuse March for Life

Saturday, January 23, 2021

12:00PM – 1:00PM

The Syracuse March for Life, sponsored by Syracuse Right to Life, will begin at the Museum of Science & Technology (MOST) and end at the MOST. Masks and social distancing will be in place during the march. For those unable to march, the Cathedral will remain open after Mass and Holy Hour for private prayer during the march.

Tuesday, January 12, 2021 – Tuesday, February 2, 2021

Repeats every Tuesday

2:00PM – 3:30PM

Christian mindfulness is drawn from ancient prayer practices of the Christian contemplative heritage, notably the fathers and mothers of the desert, Lectio Divina (praying the scriptures), The Cloud of Unknowing, St. John of the Cross & St. Theresa of Avila. Being attentive to the Presence of God is not meant to replace other kinds of prayer. Rather, it adds depth of meaning to all prayer. This retreat explores in depth the contemplative prayer practice of living in the present moment with attention and intention. We will explore, create, and practice simple habits for your consistent spiritual growth. Join us for a free four week retreat with Fr. Mark Kaminski here at The Good News Center.

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher—"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

Dear God,

Please give me the strength to endure this situation and find the blessings and lessons that it contains.

Please give me the endurance to continue ahead. Please guide my thoughts, words, and actions so that I walk your path of acceptance, peace and love. Amen.

Family Perspective

Jesus' question in today's gospel is still valid today: What are you looking for? What do you want from your significant other, children or parent? Families are populated with imperfect people. To expect perfection is unreal. To expect and accept imperfection is wisdom.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Our faith is not just about ideas. It's really about having an encounter with God and, in particular, the Risen Christ! Once we give ourselves over to the notion of God's presence, we have to train ourselves to listen for God's voice and be attentive to God's call. Having companions on our faith journeys is so incredibly important as they can help us fine-tune our listening skills and discern God's voice from others we may be hearing. Faith is all about having these profound encounters not only with God but with our brothers and sisters, and creation itself. Anyone or anything that is alive with God's presence becomes an occasion for God to speak and call us to deeper graces and experiences. "Come, and you will see."

The example and teaching of Jesus, the lives of the saints, those living among us and those glorified in heaven, and the wonder and beauty of creation can all serve to help us listen more clearly and assist in positioning ourselves for this profound God meeting. It is an encounter that can quickly and easily lead to a friendship and intimate intertwining of our souls to their Maker, making a claim on us like no other. Then, the Word of God moves from being just a body of ideas to something we simply accept and do. The person of Jesus Christ swiftly moves from being just a good prophet in word and deed to the incarnate presence of God Himself, the Lamb of God. The voice leads us to the Person behind it.

The Gospel is hard to follow. We can intellectually debate whether what Jesus said is really what we are asked to do. The Gospel ideas do not always make sense in our practical, secular world. The person of God always does. We can debate the practicality and sense of ideas and doing so often keeps the more difficult ones at a safe distance away from us. Jesus said to love our enemy, but we really don't need to do that, our minds try to convince us. It just doesn't make sense. Yet, if we are truly in love with the God who is behind the voice of those words, they make perfect sense. Our deep and intimate love of this God would even find us laying down our lives for Him if necessary. Speak Lord, your servant is listening.

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi"—which translated means Teacher—"where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." - Jn 1:38-39a

Family Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, thank you for the gift of children and parenthood. Help us to show our children how much you love them and yearn for their happiness. Help us to teach them that happiness comes through sharing their God-given gifts with others and by seeking your will. Help our family be open to your presence and to seek you in the Eucharist. Show us that when we seek you, we actually discover ourselves and our vocations more fully. Help us to love better and more. In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.
