Lenten Prayer for Transformation

Loving Father,

I invite you into my life today and make myself available to you.

Help me to become the best-version-of-myself by seeking your will and becoming a living example of your love in the world.

Open my heart to the areas of my life that need to change in order for me to carry out the mission and experience the joy you have imagined for my life.

Inspire me to live the Catholic faith in ways that are dynamic and engaging.

Make our community hungry for best practices and continuous learning.

Give me courage when I am afraid, hope when I am discouraged, and clarity in times of decision.

Teach me to enjoy uncertainty and lead your Church to become all you imagined it would be for the people of our times.

Amen.

Your 40 Day Journey of Amazing Possibilities: It's not what you give up. It's who you become.

Family Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, thank you for the gift of children and parenthood. Help us to show our children how much you love them and yearn for their happiness. Help us to teach them that happiness comes through sharing their God-given gifts with others and by seeking your will. Help our family be open to your presence and to seek you in the Eucharist. Show us that when we seek you, we actually discover ourselves and our vocations more fully. Help us to love better and more. In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.

To all our parishioners and friends who continue to sacrifice for our good during these uncertain times. You are so appreciated. We are so grateful.

Respect Life

"The essence of our identity is that we are created in God's image and likeness and loved by Him. Nothing can diminish the priceless worth of any human life. Every person is cherished."

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting & Abstinence

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

St. Charles-St. Ann Food Pantry

As always, food and non food items are needed. Canned fruits and vegetables, soups of all kinds, tuna, mac and cheese, pasta, sauce, cereals of all kinds, peanut butter and jelly/jam.

Non food items— paper towels, toilet paper, soaps of all kinds, shampoo

Three tips to deepen your relationship with God during the 40 days of Lent

1. Participate in the sacraments especially confession especially if its been awhile. The Light is on For You campaign is March 29th, from 4-7pm at St. Patrick and St. Brigid.

1. Help those in need around you, at home, at school, at the office
2. Sacrifice something that is hard for you and offer it up for someone you love.

Walk with Jesus this Lent and draw closer to Him.

Let us not allow the season of grace to pass in vain. Let us ask God to help us set out on a path of true conversion.

Vestment Colors

Question:

What do the colors of the priest's and deacon's vestments mean?

Answer:

In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive celebrations.

Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit. Moreover, red is used on the feasts and memorials of the Apostles and those saints who died as martyrs.

Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (November 2).

Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Why do we use incense at Mass?

Answer:

The use of incense in religious ceremonies and worship is a practice that predates Christianity, and which is also found in many other religious traditions today. Incense, which is made from resin infused with aromatic spices and oils, is one of those fundamentally human symbols that incorporates more than one of our senses, helping us to reflect on realities that transcend the everyday details of our lives. The use of incense in the Church's liturgy — in the Mass, as well as in devotions to the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours — is inspired by the use of incense in the Jewish tradition. In the writings of the Old Testament, we hear about incense being used in the worship of the temple, and Psalm 141 asks, "Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering" (vs. 2). The image here is that, as the incense gently rises to heaven, our prayers also rise to God as something sweet and pleasant.

Another ancient use of incense that has also become part of our Catholic tradition is the idea that when we incense something, it's because it is something special or sacred. This is why the Book of the Gospel is incensed during the Liturgy of the Word and the bread, wine, priest celebrant, and congregation are incensed at the presentation of the gifts. To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass).

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

How is your Lent going so far? In changing the circumstances and order of our lives a bit, perhaps we can hear God's voice more clearly and drink more deeply of graced moments we experience. Having God as a friend always involves several things. First, there is God's call. We become attuned to the echo of God's voice in the depth of our souls calling and beckoning us to listen. Second, there is a request. We begin to see that God asks us to do certain things, to order our lives a particular way, and become more intentional in the choices we make. Third, there is trust. Do we trust this call and request? Trust commits us to the relationship and makes a claim on who we are. Finally, we are asked to act. We find ourselves acting, not in the way we used to, but in a transformed, more enlightened way. Things seem clearer and all that is around us shines with the brilliance of God's presence. God's call came through a cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him," This is the call and the request. Can we give God our trust and do as God asks?

weekend. May God bless you always.

May their souls and all the souls of the Faithful
Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Donald Pelchy

Dear Lord,

Acceptance is the answer to all of my problems today. When I am disturbed, it is because I find some person, place, thing, attitude and situation in my life unacceptable, and I can find no serenity until I accept the things I find unacceptable.

Nothing absolutely nothing happens in God's world by mistake. Until I can accept life completely on life's terms I cannot be happy. I need to concentrate not so much on what needs to be changed as on what needs to be changed in me and in my attitude.

Amen

Family Perspective

The apostles thought they knew Jesus, but when he changes in front of them at the transfiguration, they were "afraid." In families, we can not freeze relationships because change and growth are inevitable. Children grow up, parents grow old and spouses change. Transfigurations are all around us and within us. Relationships can all grow when we embrace the new and let go of the old.
