World Day of Prayer for Vocations - May 3, 2021

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. 2021 marks the 58th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Do you recognize Christ in your life and hope to make Him known to others? Perhaps you are being called to the priesthood or consecrated life. Call Father Jason Hage (315) 470-1468, or write:

vocations@syrdio.org

Please note!!!

Each Family will be given up to 10 reservations for Mass.

If you would like to consider going to another Mass that weekend, it would be helpful in planning these celebrations. If you would like to attend the First Communion Mass, you would be more than welcome, but please make your reservation early.

Respect Life

Legislation to legalize physician assisted suicide has been introduced for the 2021-2022 legislative session. This legislation would permit terminally ill adults "who have 6 months or less to live the option to request life-ending prescription" because of pain and suffering anticipated at the end of life.

Dr. John O'Brien, a family physician and NY State Director of the Catholic Medical Association, said, "Our job is not to cause harm and death but to accompany these people at the end of life. Compassion is helping with the psychological, the physical, the emotional, and the spiritual needs at the end of life. Palliative care helps provide this support, these services. It can be utilized by anyone in the course of their illness whether they are terminal or not. It's not dependent on age. It's not dependent on a diagnosis or the prognosis."

Question: Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer: For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments.
