Prayer Requests

Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God."

Philippians 4:6

Heavenly Father, through the Sacred Heart of your Son, Jesus, we pray for our brethren with serious medical problems and for those among us who suffer from age-related disabilities. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE SERVING IN OUR MILITARY

Holy Hour of Mercy

You are invited to join on Thursday, June 3 from 3-4 pm at St Ann's Church, a Holy Hour of Mercy.

We will be praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Brochures will be available. Bring a friend and your prayer requests.

Our Divine Mercy Holy Hour in May was beautiful.

As always, all are welcome! Hope to see you there!

The Bishop Ludden Ministry for distributing Communion on Sundays following the 10:30am Mass is resuming. Your commitment would be once a month.

If you would like to be a part, please call Mary Lou Paratore at 315-468-2283. We are in desperate need of help!

One of the local Nursing Homes is in need of C-Pap machines. They do not need the hoses, etc. just the machine. They are able to sanitize and recondition for use at their facility.

If you have a machine that is not in use, Sister Eileen will gladly pick it up or you can bring it to St. Ann's and leave it in the gathering space.

Thank you!

May their souls and all the souls of the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Mark Kearney

Welcome back!!! Last weekend was a joyful return to a bit of normalcy. How wonderful to see so many and your smiling faces!! We've been waiting for this day!

With our restrictions easing up, a few have inquired as to having a Sunday morning Mass offered at St. Ann's.

For now, we will keep the weekend Masses at St. Charles and the daily Masses at St. Ann's. We are not through the pandemic yet, and the larger churches accommodate more with better distancing.

Adding another Mass is not feasible. Father Kevin is responsible for weddings, funerals and baptisms along with celebrating Masses. Canonically he should not be celebrating more than four Masses on a weekend and there are no available "extra clergy".

Thank you for your support and understanding.

Holy Trinity Sunday

Thank you for my children, Lord; I know they are a gift from you. Daily I need your strength and wisdom to train them in the way they should go. Give me patience and a joyful heart; let me be an example of your love and forgiveness.

Thank you, Father, for the honor of being a parent.

Amen

Family Perspective

*In today's gospel Jesus commands,
"Teach them to carry out everything
I have commanded you."*

This command is meant for every Christian. In light of this command, parenting is not only the most difficult task a person can take on, it is also one of the most apostolic and missionary tasks.

*Jesus commands all parents to teach their children
"all that I have commanded you."*

Sanctuary Candles at St. Patrick and St. Brigid are lit for the week of May 30th in thanksgiving for Jack and Gerry Barrett on the occasion of their 65th wedding anniversary by the Barrett Children.

St. Patrick and St. Brigid Food Pantry

Located at 1331 W. Fayette Street. Open every Monday and Tuesday from 9:30am-12pm.

If you would like to drop off donations of food, please do so during the pantry hours on West Fayette, or bring to St. Patrick and St. Brigid Church at Mass times or weekdays at St. Ann's Church 4471 Onondaga Blvd. 8am-2pm.

The Homebound Ministry is back in action. We have permission from the Diocese to resume visitation to hospitals, nursing homes and to the homebound. (following the protocols of each institution).

Mary Morley will be passing out cards looking for information regarding a loved one that would enjoy a visit, phone call or card.

Also, if you are interested in being a part of this ministry, please take a moment to fill out a card with your info and you will be contacted.

This is a very rewarding ministry. Please consider being a part of the team!

The Blessed and Broken Prayer Group that met on Thursday evening at St. Ann's School are ready to resume in person meetings on June 3rd.

If you are interested, we will be meeting in the teacher's lounge (enter from the front of the school) at 7pm.

We'd love to have you join us!

The Our God Reigns Prayer Group that met at St. Charles from 4-5pm on Tuesdays would like to resume in person meetings.

If you are interested, we will be meeting in the reading room at St. Charles on June 1 and continue on Tuesdays from 4-5pm. All are most welcome!

Church is hard.

Church is hard for the person walking through the doors, afraid of judgement.

Church is hard for the priest or the sister, under the microscope of an entire body.

Church is hard for the prodigal soul returning home, broken and battered by the world.

Church is hard for the person who looks like they have it all together, but doesn't.

Church is hard for the couple who fought the entire ride to mass.

Church is hard for the single parent, surrounded by couples holding hands, and seemingly perfect families.

Church is hard for the widow and widower with no invitation to lunch after service.

Church is hard for the deacon with an estranged child.

Church is hard for the person singing worship songs, overwhelmed by the weight of the lyrics.

Church is hard for the person insecure in his role as a leader.

Church is hard for the spouse who longs for equality in marriage.

Church is hard for the nursery volunteer who desperately longs for a baby to love.

Church is hard for the single woman and single man, praying God brings them a mate.

Church is hard for the teenager, who made a poor choice, and feels shamed for their actions.

Church is hard for the sinners.

Church is hard for me.

It's hard because on the outside it all looks shiny and perfect. Sunday best in behavior and dress.

However, underneath those layers, you find a body of imperfect people, carnal souls, selfish motives.

But, here is the beauty of church—

Church isn't a building, mentality, or expectation.

Church is a body.

Church is a group of everyday sinners, saved by grace and living in fellowship.

Church is a body of believers bound as sisters and brothers by an eternal love and understanding.

Church is a holy ground where we stand as equals before the Throne of Grace.

Church is a refuge for broken hearts and a training ground for mighty warriors.

Church is a converging of confrontation and invitation. Where hearts are restored.

Church is a lesson in faith and trust.

Church is a bearer of burdens and a giver of hope.

Church is a family. A family coming together, setting aside differences, forgetting past mistakes, rejoicing in the smallest of victories.

Church, meant to be the body, and place of peace and justice where He resides within always faithful to come.

So even on the hard days at church—

The days when I am at odds with a friend, when I've fought with my spouse because we're late once again. When I've walked in bearing burdens heavier than my heart can handle, yet masking the pain with a smile on my face. When I've worn a scarlet letter, under the microscope. When I've longed for a baby to hold, or fought tears as the lyrics were sung. When I've walked back in, afraid and broken, after walking away.

I'll remember, He has never failed to meet me there.
