From the desk of Deacon Tony:

Some information pertaining to liturgies at St. Charles-St. Ann

To our Lectors: Please note that we will now be using the Ambo in the sanctuary to proclaim the readings. We will no longer be using the lectern in the choir section.

In Regard to Communion: The Church's norm, as you know, for receiving Communion is to process up to the front of the church. If you are unable to walk to the front, a Eucharistic minister will now come to the benches in the back to bring you Holy Communion.

To our Altar Servers: At the end of August, I will start training new servers (those who have made First Eucharist and anyone older, too), and Katie Boyea will put together a formal schedule in September 2021. Fr. Kevin and I can't wait to have you all back serving again!!!!

Respect Life

Forty eight years after the legalization of abortion in the US., over 62 million children have been aborted, and the killing continues. Many who have abortions discover afterward that it was the wrong choice one that will haunt them and overshadow every aspect of their lives.

"That day I walked in with a little life growing inside me, and I left with an empty womb, a huge void, and a shattered soul," Diana from Texas wrote in her testimony for the Silent No More Awareness Campaign. "I carried my grief and shame for many, many years."

Gina from Washington State wrote: "Immediately I felt empty and deep sorrow but I thought that would go away once I physically "recovered" and gave it due time. I did not know that I would never recover, at least not without God's grace and infinite mercy. I spent year after year getting more lost, searching for ways to fill the voids left after abortion."

Before they can take part in the Silent No More Awareness Campaign, (SilentNoMore.com), mothers and fathers who have lost children to abortion have to have completed a healing program. Once they begin telling their stories in public, they become the most eloquent voices for how healing after abortion can- and will-change your life for the better.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life's demands and people's needs can really zap us of all of our energy. Anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and even apathy can run wild. We can find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect, and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished. Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours?

We are excited to announce the return of

REFLECT

FIRST READING

The prophet Jeremiah spoke of God's negative reaction to "the shepherds" (false rulers) who neglected and mislead his "sheep" (the people of Israel and Judah). What characteristics make for an ideal leader?

SECOND READING

Paul taught the Ephesians that through his cross and resurrection, Jesus established unity and peace for all believers. When have you experienced harmony in your faith community?

GOSPEL READING

Jesus encouraged the apostles to retreat and rest after their successful missionary work, but the crowds made that difficult. What gets in your way from resting and retreating?

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Lord,

Please help me to be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger.

Help me to listen

for understanding.

Help my words to build

instead of tear down.

Help my attitude

to be of peace, not of anger.

Amen

Family Perspective

In today's gospel, "the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done." Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of a young child or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time well spent, it is sacred time.
