Prayer Requests

Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God."

Philippians 4:6

New York State has instituted a mask mandate in all public places effective December 13 to January 15. It is being done as a safety precaution and out of the utmost concern for one's neighbor. Bishop Lucia expects that all parishes in the Diocese of Syracuse will cooperate with this important public health matter and comply with the mask mandate.

Hope appeal Update

As of December 15, 2021, we collected $16,580.00 toward our assessed amount of $34,793.05. Thank you, to all who have already donated, or who have made a pledge to donate. It is greatly appreciated. We are still short $18,213.05 of our goal. The Hope appeal bill is due in full by December 31st. If each family gave an annual donation to Hope Appeal of $60.00 which is roughly $3.75 per week we would definitely meet our goal.

Father, thank you for my family.

Help them in all their doings. Father, you are the only one who knows what each one of us is going through and what weighs on us. I pray that you our Lord, will give my family the strength to overcome whatever problems that will come their way. Help anyone fighting a silent battle. Let them find peace and comfort in you.

Amen.

Family Perspective

Today's gospel contains this truth about parenting; "but his parents did not know." One of the reasons parenting is so difficult is because our children don't tell us everything. If the Holy Family had trouble with their teenager, why do we think it will be easier for us?

RESPECT LIFE

Christmas is not about the birth of a child who became a great man. It is about a God who created the human family, and then decided to become a member of that family, thereby joining all of us to Himself. He joins to His Divinity all who share human nature: the weak and strong, the exaltation of the human person. That's why our "grown up Christmas list" can say "no more lives torn apart"- whether by abortion or anything else. Christmas lists spring from Christmas hope, and Christmas is all about the victory of life!

Priests for Life

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

St. Charles-St. Ann's Food Pantry:

SO MANY THANK YOU'S ! Our wonderful parishioners, so steadfast in helping our families in need. The gifts, food and gift cards were so overwhelming. Families that were in great need of support, got that support because of your generosity.

Many children will see the magic of Christmas! A special thank you to the Westhill School District who, for so many years have supported our efforts several times throughout the year with food drives and to the children in our faith formation program for your donations of food items.

We could not be more grateful. Merry Christmas to all and a very Blessed New Year!

Marie Cullen and the Food Pantry/Outreach team.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

I HAVE BEEN AWAY FROM THE CHURCH FOR A FEW YEARS AND REALLY WANT TO GET ACTIVE AGAIN, NOT SO MUCH FOR ME, BUT FOR MY CHILDREN. IS THIS A BAD REASON TO COME BACK TO CHURCH?

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer.

But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.
