3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Lord, Don't let my desires blind me to your will-give me peace with what ever your plan is.

A Family Perspective

Jesus Invited the disciples to "Come and have breakfast." At this beach breakfast and the Last Supper Jesus teaches us meals should be more than eating. Family meals are opportunities to share prayer, listen to each other's stories, understand and support one another.

Respect Life

Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone wrote in a Catholic World Report article: Every Mass is a miracle: Do we see it? When we receive the Eucharist, do we see beyond the appearances of bread and wine to the reality of Jesus Christ offering Himself for us? The child in the womb in the early stages doesn't look exactly like the newborn baby, any more than the toddler exactly resembles the grown man or woman he or she will become. Can we see beyond the physical appearance to the reality that science now shows us: That each child in his mothers womb is a unique, living human being? That each abortion kills a human life?

When politicians pontificate about abortion as a choice or even a human right, do we see beyond the rhetoric to the ugliness of what they propose: the deliberate snuffing out of innocent lives, each one of them unique, irreplaceable and loved by God?

The two things are intimately connected: reverence for the sacred Eucharist and reverence for human life where it is most vulnerable and defenseless.

From Deacon TonyTraining for New Altar Servers

Anyone who has made his or her First Eucharist or anyone older who would like to be trained to serve at the altar, please contact me and we will set up a time for training sessions. As you know it is a great privilege to serve at the altar and your presence doing so certainly enhances our liturgies. You will be trained to serve for the 5:15 and/or 10:30 Masses. Please contact me at 315-468-2283, as soon as possible or via email at tparatore@syrdio.org.

Hope to hear from you!

St. Charles-St. Ann Food Pantry We have been asked to participate in the Blessings in a backpack program for a few inner city schools. The children will bring home a backpack on Fridays with food to help get them through the weekend. For this project we will need backpacks, and snack sized items such as fruits, applesauce, snacks, individual mac and cheese, etc. Things that are kid-friendly and not heavy. More details to follow next week. Also in need: personal hygiene products: soap, toothpaste, deodorant, shampoo
