A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

In today's gospel Jesus was publicly AFFIRMED by his Father: "You are my beloved son, with you I am very pleased." As parents we can become so focused on misbehaviors we overlook the good behaviors. Jesus needed AFFIRMATION and so do our children.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, "For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased' (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you." Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart.

— Father John Muir

St. Patrick and St. Brigid Food Pantry There are paper grocery bags in the vestibule with a grocery list attached of items needed for the Food Pantry. Feel free to take a bag, fill it and either drop it off at the pantry during their open hours or leave it in the vestibule. Thank you !

CARING COMMUNITY EVENING NEWS

The Caring Community is a group of women in the west area of Syracuse from St. Charles-St. Ann's and St. Patrick-St. Brigid's parishes and any other interested women. This meeting is for women who want to meet other women in our area and to be offered ways to help others in our community. The day group will continue to meet monthly during the day. To include more people, we are now offering an evening meeting for women who aren't available during the day. (Of course, people who attend the day meetings are welcome to attend in the evening too!)

Our first meeting is Tuesday, January 21 at 6:30pm at the Westhill High School Library. (Park in the front of the school and walk to the left to the library.)

We are looking forward to meeting you!
