Prayer Requests

Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God." Philippians 4:6

Liturgical Minister Training: Commentators, Greeters, Ushers, Homebound Ministry

All liturgical ministers must complete Safe Environment training and a criminal background check, reflecting the Diocese's commitment to protecting the vulnerable. Though they may not regularly interact with children, youth, or vulnerable adults, liturgical ministers serve as safe adults within our parish community.

Beginning January 1, 2026, Commentators, Greeters, Ushers, and those involved in Homebound Ministry must complete Safe Environment training by September 30, 2026.

Please also continue to remind Music Ministry to meet this requirement by March 31, 2026 and Sacristans, Adult Altar Servers, Liturgical Ministry Leaders, and Lectors, by June 30, 2026.

Any questions, please contact either Michael Goodnough at 315-475-2185 or Sister Eileen at emcgrath128@gmail.com

SANDWICH MAKERS NEEDED!

St. Patrick and St. Brigid Food Pantry

There are paper grocery bags in the vestibule with a grocery list attached of items needed for the Food Pantry. Feel free to take a bag, fill it and either drop it off at the pantry during their open hours or leave it in the vestibule. Thank you !

Women at the Well is a place where you can share your thoughts, experiences, and ponderings about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, prayer, scripture, your own spiritual growth—or desire for it. The group honors confidentiality, acceptance, and respect.

If you would like companionship as you walk your spiritual journey, come and join us. Come as you please—every month, once in a while or once just to see what it is like.

The group is facilitated by Kathy Meus. Kathy retired after 36 years of serving four parishes in the diocese as a Director of Faith Formation and in pastoral ministry. She holds a master's certificate from Loyola University in New Orleans. Having been a retreat director for over 15 years, she enjoys gathering with women who are also seeking to grow in their faith.

The group meets the last Tuesday of each month from 2-3:30 pm at The Good News Center. Register at goodnewsfoundation.org or call us Monday-Friday 8:30 am-4:30 pm at 315-735-6210.

Happy News!

We heard you and now we hope you can hear us!

The electricians and sound technicians have been at work to install new wiring and sound equipment. We should be up and running by the first week of February. DCI Sound has done extensive study on the needs of our parish for clear sound for all to comfortably hear and participate at Mass. ENJOY!

Caring Community News

Our next Caring Community morning meeting will be Friday, February 13th at 10am at the Solvay Public Library Community Meeting Room.

Our next evening meeting will be on February 17th at 6:30pm at Walberta Park School Conference Room—enter by the bus circle.

We'd love to have you join us!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: Young or old, believer or non-believer, rich or poor: it doesn't matter who we are. It doesn't matter what our life looks like. If we are a human being, if we have a soul, we stand on the shore of a great and powerful sea, a net in our hands and a hunger in our soul.

Sea of Galilee Moments

Young or old, believer or non-believer, rich or poor, healthy or sick: it doesn't matter who we are. It doesn't matter what our life looks like. If we are a human being, if we have a soul, we stand on the shore of a great and powerful sea, a net in our hands and a hunger in our soul.

So what's in the sea? I don't know about yours, but mine is filled with feelings of inadequacy. It's filled with fear and resentment and confusion. It's filled with misplaced pride. It's deep. It's dark. It's well-stocked.

I cast my net, over and over again. What else is there to do? If I draw back a harvest, it can sustain me for days, weeks, maybe even years. The nourishment of the sea can keep away the hunger pangs — for a time. You can survive on fear and resentment and pride if it's all you have. You'll never feel full, and you'll never be strong, but you'll survive on what the world can offer you — so long as you keep coming back to the shore.

This is where Jesus finds us.

If I close my eyes, I can picture the moments exactly, all of them: my Sea of Galilee moments. I could describe them to you — the day, the year, what was happening in my life, what I wanted and what I needed and what gnawing hunger had brought me, once again, limping, crawling back to the shore.

But you wouldn't understand my Sea of Galilee moments, just like I wouldn't understand yours. There is only one who understands, and his is the voice we heard, clear and strong: "Put down the net, and come with me."

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If one's gift or talent is making money, and one uses that money for honorable purposes, is it considered a spiritual gift? What does our faith teach us about wealth and stewardship?

Answer:

Jesus said it best: to whom much is given, much is expected. All gifts come from God, and our abilities are given to us to be used for the benefit of ourselves and of others and at the service of the Gospel. In an article entitled "The Many Faces of Stewardship," Catherine Doherty wrote about stewardship in the "nitty-gritty everydayness of my life," and about the currency or "money" of spiritual stewardship: love, understanding, and unselfishness.

For a gift to have a spiritual benefit, our intention and involvement would be part of the consideration. If I give money to a charity, but do so in order to gain a tax advantage, it could hardly be a virtuous thing on my part. But if I give because I want to help and, in fact, am even willing to get involved, I have committed myself in a deeper, more meaningful way. Regardless of our money-making talents, in the end, true stewardship comes down to how well we practice the virtues of faith, hope, and love within our life and with those in our community and church. Ultimately, the most important element in stewardship is not intangible — it's you!
