St. Patrick and St. Brigid Food Pantry

There are paper grocery bags in the vestibule with a grocery list attached of items needed for the Food Pantry. Feel free to take a bag, fill it and either drop it off at the pantry during their open hours or leave it in the vestibule. Thank you !

Women at the Well is a place where you can share your thoughts, experiences, and ponderings about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, prayer, scripture, your own spiritual growth—or desire for it. The group honors confidentiality, acceptance, and respect.

If you would like companionship as you walk your spiritual journey, come and join us. Come as you please—every month, once in a while or once just to see what it is like.

The group is facilitated by Kathy Meus. Kathy retired after 36 years of serving four parishes in the diocese as a Director of Faith Formation and in pastoral ministry. She holds a master's certificate from Loyola University in New Orleans. Having been a retreat director for over 15 years, she enjoys gathering with women who are also seeking to grow in their faith.

The group meets the last Tuesday of each month from 2-3:30 pm at The Good News Center. Register at goodnewsfoundation.org or call us Monday-Friday 8:30 am-4:30 pm at 315-735-6210.

Please join us to pray the rosary on Sunday evenings, 7pm at St. Charles— St. Ann. Bring your intentions, your worries, your needs and pray in community with us as we pray for the sick, for peace and for Mary's intercession.

RESPECT LIFE

St. Gerard Majella is a patron saint of children, including those who are unborn, and of mothers, particularly those who are pregnant. He was a lay brother with the redemptorists. When this Italian saint was 27, a young unmarried woman accused him of being the father of her baby. Instead of exposing her lie, he quietly accepted the shame and punishment. Because of the scandal, he wasn't permitted to receive Holy Communion. Later, the young woman admitted her lie. In all of his trials, including suffering from tuberculosis— which took his life at age 29— St. Gerard knew that he would find fulfillment in God alone.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. The greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Be Salty

I want you to close your eyes. Are they closed? (I'm serious.) Okay. Now think of the greatest saint in history.

I don't care who you're thinking of. It's going to be different for everyone. Just think of that person. Think of his or her life. And answer the question: Why is he or she a great saint?

You're all thinking of different people, but the answer is the same for everyone. And it's not "Because he did great things for God" or "Because she sacrificed everything she had for the poor." Those answers show evidence of the reason. But the reason is something more.

The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. God brought holiness about within them because (ding ding ding! Here's the answer!) the greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Not who they wanted to be. Not who they thought they should be. Who they were meant to be.

Simply put, they gave themselves to God. All of themselves. Flaws and all. And God took them, in their totality, and said: "Now watch this."

Just imagine if salt was ashamed of being salty. Imagine if it looked at the sodium content on its nutrition label and thought, "That's embarrassing," and decided it was going to stop being salt. Well, great. Now it's just a box of tiny rocks.

Wouldn't it have been better for the salt to trust the baker using it?

There is a plan for each of us. There is a path to holiness for each of us. This path doesn't bypass our flaws or our weaknesses; it incorporates them. It transforms them. It fulfills them.

So be salty. Be who you were meant to be.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
