Back-to-School Blessing

Dear God, We ask that You bless the students in our congregation, giving them inspirational teachers, studious habits, solid friendships, and Your grace in every moment of this school year. Bless the teachers and school staff in our congregation, too. Fill them with Your love and care so that, as they teach and minister to our young people, Your wisdom and light may be known, encountered, and shared.

Amen.

Church envelopes

First let me say thank you for your continued support through this difficult time with our church envelopes. If you are one of our parishioners that have still not received their parish envelopes, please continue to use a plain envelope, however, it would be very helpful if you could make sure the following information is written on the outside of the envelope. Parish name–envelope number or your name. This will assist both parishes and make sure your donation goes to the right parish.

Thank you,

Father Kevin

ENDOWMENT CORNER

St Charles- St Ann's Trustee Designated Endowment

Asbestos abatement has begun. The process will take up to ten days and must be completed before the balcony/choir loft can be removed. A contract has been signed with Concor, Inc. for the dismantling of the balcony. Request for proposals are outstanding for window replacements and acoustical panels & renovation of the back wall.

The renovation will require the replacement of the baptismal font. Father Kevin is in the process of contacting Stickley Furniture for the creation of a font (similar to the one at St. Patrick's). To date $1,000 has been contributed by a parishioner to cover a portion of the costs of this special project. Thank you to her!

Please note and mark your calendars!

Our Sunday evening Rosary will take place at St Patrick and St. Brigid's at 7pm. A group of parishioners gather to pray the rosary for special intentions, especially for people who are seriously ill.

We invite everyone to join us for the half hour Rosary. You can write your intentions on the book as you enter the church and we will read all intentions prior to the Rosary.

For those who cannot make it, we do live stream the Rosary on Youtube. You can find us @ St.Charles-St. AnnSyr

We go live at 7pm, come pray with us!

Corinne Driscoll

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples how to minister to those who sin, and declares that whatever they shall bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven.

Treat Him Like a Gentile

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives instructions for ministering to those persisting in error. Here's the CliffsNotes version: If all else fails, "treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector."

In other words? Don't give up. Tell him the truth. Wash, rinse and repeat.

Technically speaking, I'm a Gentile. I've done those mail-in DNA tests, and none of my ancestors were Jewish. So whoever told my family about the God of Abraham, it wasn't Moses, and it probably wasn't Jesus himself, unless he spent some time in northwestern Europe that the Gospels fail to mention.

Nope, my ancestors were big old Gentiles living in a big old Gentile world. Lucky for me, someone evangelized them. At first, my ancestors probably didn't listen. But the evangelist, whoever he or she was, didn't give up.

I say "lucky for me" because this all means that I was born and raised Catholic. It makes it easier, I think — but it doesn't make it easy. I'm not an automaton, and I still have to accept the truth of the faith I choose to live. So do you. So do we all.

Inevitably, we falter. What then?

Who are the tax collectors? Zaccheus was one. Matthew was another. Maybe you recognize his name — he's the guy who wrote this Gospel. And who are the Gentiles? Me. You, maybe. Everyone the disciples decided not to give up on. Everyone the Church is called not to forget about, not to dismiss, and not to take for granted.

So treat them all like Gentiles, and remember that God sees the future, not just the past.
