Inspiration for the week

When you wake up in the morning, whose voice is the first one you listen to? Your own? Someone else's? Or God? We all listen to someone and follow some sort of guidelines and principles. If it is a secular voice that propels us to get up in the morning and take up the task of the day's agenda, then we may find ourselves off track. The advice found in the Acts of the Apostles was as true then as it is now, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Most of what we listen to in secular voices is off the axis of truth and distorted. It may sound attractive, but it is deceptive at best. Many have gone astray like sheep and need to return to the Good Shepherd. Only Jesus can offer us the gate of life, and only Jesus as the Good Shepherd can really motivate us to take on the challenges of life. If we don't recognize his voice, we can risk facing destruction.

-ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA

From the desk of Father Kevin....

Sometimes, our lives take us places that we don't want to go. Right now, we are homebound, not necessarily able to be with family, friends, or out and about. We are not able to be with our parish communities and are separated from our church, our spiritual home. These are very difficult realities for us to have to go through, but we are not alone. It is during the Easter season that Jesus appeared to his disciples and followers, when they initially thought he was dead and far from them. Jesus appears to us, too, during times when we cannot physically receive him or be with him in the Eucharist. That is what faith in Jesus is all about. The ability to believe in something we can't always see or smell, or touch, or hear, or taste. The risen one is all around us and in US, we need only to ask for the grace to sense his presence, abiding in our prayers, our lives, and our hearts.

Stay safe everyone and I look forward to that day when we can all be together again.

God Bless You!

Fr Kevin

Prayer Requests Would you like us to pray for your intentions? Prayer requests can be emailed to Sister Eileen McGrath at emcgrath128@gmail.com. Your requests go directly to the Blessed and Broken Prayer Group and the Our God Reigns Prayer Group who will pray for your intention. All prayer requests are held in confidence and are known only to the prayer intercessors.

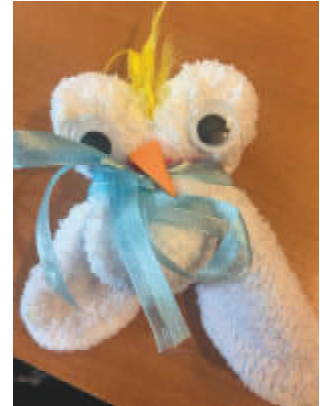

“Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made know to God.”

Philippians 4:6

A shout out to Quinn Connelly and her mom, Beth Connelly, for their donation of special handmade gifts for the homebound during this time of separation. They made 37 suncatchers and 24 towel friends.

What a great surprise! Thank you Beth and Quinn for supplying some sunshine on these gloomy days!!!!

St. Lucy's Church honors four Central New Yorkers with annual Dorothy Day awards— One of them is our own Marie Cullen!!

Syracuse.com

St. Lucy's Church in Syracuse each spring presents its annual Dorothy Day awards. This year, the annual dinner announcing the awards was cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic, but the awards have been announced.

The awards go to people who exemplify the life and actions of the late Dorothy Day, a journalist and political activist who helped create the Catholic Worker Movement and its network of houses of hospitality for the poor. Now, more than ever we need to celebrate those who care for others, those who give a voice for others and those who welcome others," said Eileen Clinton, public relations director for the Dorothy Day Award Committee. "Maybe after hearing their stories you will be inspired to call someone in isolation that is lonely, donate to a food pantry, or drop off food to a neighbor."

Marie Cullen—Marie is the type of person you want around when you really need to get things done!

She grew up in the Tip Hill area and was part of the Rosary Society at St Charles. While there she met an older couple who wanted to form a food pantry.

Marie raised her hand and has been running the Pantry and contributing to other pantries (St Lucy, St Anthony) for over 36 years and is still going strong! Her dedication, determination and spirit are summed up in this story she told me.

Marie received a call to visit a young family on Fitch Street. She stopped off to buy food for them on the way there. When she arrived, she met a young mother with seven children and saw no beds, no toys... a real tough situation. The husband, a veteran, was in the hospital. Marie rallied in her usual fashion. She called her neighbors to keep meals coming. She found seven beds at Van Duyn. When the husband returned in a lot of pain, she rallied again and remembering seeing a hospital bed in the basement of St. Charles. She and some helpers brought this bed to the house for the husband to use. Marie remembers the husband "looking like Jesus" and he said "thank you for doing all of this for me and my children."

Marie shows her love for God in her love and work for others.

"What we need to do is to change the world to make it simpler for people to find food, clothing, and shelter as God intended them to do...." - Dorothy Day
